

Regional Conference: Southwest

Flagstaff, Arizona
Northern Arizona University Campus
April 27-28, 2018

Theme: Engaging Learners and the Community

Featuring: Optional field trips to Elden Pueblo (weather permitting) and the Museum of Northern Arizona (MNA)

Cost (includes 1 meal/day):

- Pre-registration non-student $48
- On-site registration non-student $55
- Pre-registration student $38
- On-site registration student $45

We will meet on site for the field trips. MNA is an additional fee.

April 27

- 11:45 am-12:15 pm registration
- 12:15-3:00 sessions/lunch
- 3:30-5:00 MNA field trip

April 28

- 9:15 am-9:45 register/breakfast
- 9:45-12:00 sessions
- 12:30 lunch (on your own)
- Meet at Elden at 1:30

Call for Papers and Panelists:

Would you like to share favorite teaching methods? Are you a student who has some tips for anthropology professors to help keep their classmates engaged? Would you like to share experiences with engaging in the community in the context of anthropology?

Please send an abstract of up to 200 words to lara.lloyd@cgc.edu no later than April 7th. Be prepared to present for 12-15 minutes.

Don't have a paper but you still want to have your voice heard? Join our student panel to discuss experiences in community college anthropology.

Be sure to send your name (how you want it in the program, institution, and either abstract or summary of the types of experiences you would like to share to be on the panel to lara.lloyd@cgc.edu.

Please pre-register by April 7, 2018. Parking is available, for a fee on Friday, and free on Saturday at NAU.

Visit <http://sacc.americananthro.org/> for registration and more information.

Questions? Contact Lara Lloyd at lara.lloyd@cgc.edu